

JeffSTAT EMS Education Center presents EMT Certification 15-Week Course

The Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) training course prepares participants to provide basic emergency medical care to sick and injured patients. EMTs provide a variety of vital care to patients in many different settings, including hospitals, non-emergency transport, and other public safety settings alongside police, fire departments, and security agencies.

Commitment to excellence is our goal. We have one of the highest first-time passing on the NREMT (National Registered Emergency Technicians) Exam in Pennsylvania. NREMT is the golden standard of EMS used in the state of Pennsylvania.
